

And the winner is ...

ICC Solutions is extremely proud to announce that Dave Maisey, CEO and Founder Director, has won the UK High Sheriff's Award for Enterprise 2017/18 for Outstanding Cheshire & Warrington Business Leader.

The award recognises an Outstanding Business Leader who has shown exceptional vision and leadership at the helm of a successful and growing business which has also contributed to the development and reputation of the whole sub-region.

Dave was nominated for his leadership of ICC Solutions since 1996, with the company going from strength to strength over the last 21 years and becoming a recognised leader in the industry, winning an exceptional four Queen's Award for Enterprise for Innovation and International Trade.

In addition, Dave has become involved in many other projects. Collaborating with the Duke of Edinburgh's Awards in 2016, he was instrumental in creating a pilot for the DofE North West for Exporting Excellence.

The pilot was so successful that it was reviewed by the DofE Board in London and approved as a recognised skill on the DofE Awards for the whole UK.

From this, Dave, who is a board member of the Institute of Export, was at the forefront of combining the expertise of the IOE with the Exporting Excellence to create a resource that schools, and over 400,000 young people, can access nationally, giving them help and advice on exporting.

Dave is involved in additional charity activities over and above the work that he does for ICC Solutions, the DofE and IOE. Dave works tirelessly to help young people and is a supporter of the Warrington Youth Club and Cheshire Connect. Both charities that have been grateful for the support and advice that he has offered.

Most recently Dave has become a Trustee Director of the Merseyside & Cheshire Commonwealth Association (MCCA), being instrumental in recognising Commonwealth Day on 12 March 2018 with a launch event attended by H.R.H The Earl of Wessex. The MCCA aims to work further on forging greater links within the Commonwealth going forward.

The team at ICC Solutions are extremely proud that Dave has won this coveted award, and it is true recognition of tireless hard work and dedication.
